FOREWORD

This year we based our yearbook on the Candor Indian. This is the emblem under which our teams have played so well and which represents us to the county at large.

We have turned our school into an Indian Camp and invite you to go back to the days when the Indians roamed our playgrounds and corridors.

As our community is filled with the Indian and his activities so is this yearbook filled with the memories of a busy year that has seen the class of 1956 cover its campfire and join a long line of warriors under the flag of the Alumni.

DEDICATION

We, the Senior Class of 1956, wish to dedicate our 1955-56 annual to Mrs. Florence Brucknak, third grade teacher at Candor since 1939. Nearly all of the seniors have had Mrs. Brucknak at one time and wish to thank her sincerely for her fine help on one of our steps toward future careers.

HIGHLIGHTS

The Student Council got off to a good start for the year of 1955-1956 with the following officers: President, Gerald Newman; Vice President, Warren Paxton; Secretary, Claudia Van Etten; and Treasurer, David Silsbee.

First on the agenda was the activity calendar. Each class made out a list of activities that they would like to have during the year. This list was turned over to the Student Council.

The Student Association Drive was put into effect with a contest for 100% membership of each class. The classes winning were: Senior, Freshmen and Eighth Grade — all receiving lollipops as their prize.

The Candor Student Council joined the National Association of Student Councils.

Christmas Gift Boxes for the needy families were collected with each class contributing articles of food, clothing, or toys. This year the Student Council put the boxes in with those of the American Legion to be distributed.

The Tri-County delegates for 1955-1956 are: Lloyd Harmon, Gerald Newman, Warren Paxton, and Sally Davenport.

WILL

We, the SENIOR CLASS OF 1956, of Candor Central School, being of sound mind and body, do make, publish and declare this Last Will and Testament.

I, DAVE SILSBEE, will my Trig Regents mark to DICK VAN SCOY, (also my Intermediate Regents mark if he needs it).

MARGARET BLOW wills her first semester and six subjects to any Junior who will take them.

To GORDON CAMPBELL, JAN CONSALVI leaves all her solos in Dance Band.

RODNEY ACKLES wishes ROBERT BARDEN to have his S. F. P. records.

I, SKIP LIND, will to MR. GIBBONS, one used tire so he will have a spare the next time he wants to go home.

RAY DAVENPORT leaves to FRED ANDREWS his success in F. F. A.

To NANCY MEDDAUGH, WENONA PERET wills her driver's permit.

WARREN PAXTON wills all rights and privileges to the orange easy chair in the Homemaking house to DICK KLINGER.

MARGE COOK leaves her ability to go through low doorways to JIM BOSKET.

LARRY MEDDAUGH wishes to will his six years of English books to LELAND MEDDAUGH.

I, LEW PENNEY, being of sound mind, a statement which many people doubt; leave my last school possessions to RUTHIE HALL, one very much sought after blue notebook and a very seldom used pen.

PAT KEENE AND JOYCE DOUCETTE will to SUE KEENE their varsity cheerleading uniforms to take care of next year, also the headaches, but mostly the fun they've had for the past three years on varsity.

GERTRUDE HURD wills her Homemaking apron to BARB FISH.

To her sister NANCY, JOYCE VERGASON wishes to leave her ability to keep out of detention.

DON VAN SCOY leaves his ability to play chords on the piano to anyone who can read all of them.

I, SHARON STORM, will all smashed-up cars and tickets for speeding to RUTHIE HALL.

To FRED ANDREWS, CLARENCE ROSE leaves a package of Red Man chewing tobacco.

SALLY SANDIDGE wills her "Piece Porge" partner, DICK VAN SCOY, to JO ANN JORDAN.

I, RICHARD DARLING, of not so sound mind, will to DONALD STRONG, my height.

BILL HUGHES leaves ———, that's all.

DAVE SNOW leaves his Toni Spin Curlers and little black book to MR. GIBBONS.

JERRY NEWMAN wills his well-kept, neat, stupendously glorious looking, well written, beautifully done score-book for the basketball team, to whoever will do it that way.

I, CLAUDIA VAN ETTEN, will LLOYD HARMON our old locker with all the papers, stray gum, pencils, etc., and anything else he can find that is of value to him.

DON YEIER wills his exuberant ability to make school on time and a few dozen tardy excuses to BONNY MEDDAUGH. (Yawn!)

DICK WEBER leaves his late hours of homework to anyone who needs them.

In Witness Thereof, on this 26th day of June in the year One Thousand Nine Hundred and Fifty-six A. D. we have set our signatures to this, our Last Will and Testament.

CLASS PROPHECY

Many an Indian chief has been noted for his tales and stories of past events. As we seat ourselves comfortably around the camp fire of the Candorama Indian Tribe, we become aware of an unbelievable talent of the Chief Wa-Hoo — not the ordinary talent of relating past happenings, but rather the curiosity in the minds of his listeners as to exactly what they will be doing in a few years to come, he promises to take us, the "Class of 56" on an imaginary trip. Closing our eyes, according to his instructions we find ourselves in the City of the Future.

The first thing that meets our eye is a huge crowd gathered in the city square. Right in the middle stands the well-known politician and speech maker, Dick Darling. He is making a nation-wide tour campaigning for Jerry Newman, a candidate for the U. S. Presidency.

Noticing a large department store, we decide to enter. As we walk up to a counter we see a familiar face, that of Janet Consalvi, who is now head clerk.

Arriving in the furniture department and stopping for a moment to watch a T. V. set in operation, we discover to our amazement Dick Weber. He has become official owner and head mouseketeer of the Mickey Mouse Programs.

As we go down the street we bump into Dave Snow. He explains that he is the owner of a used car lot — specialty — red trucks — slightly used, but still in good condition.

Suddenly, as we are hurrying along by a window advertisement for Sleeping Beauty Mattresses, we see right there in the middle of the bed, Larry Meddaugh, sound asleep!

Not two minutes later we encounter Claudia Van Etten who is now secretary to Raymond Davenport, head of the American Farmers Association. She invites us to have lunch with her where she is to meet Joyce Vergason, secretary to the well-known successful business man, Dave Silsbee. We learn during the course of the luncheon conversation that Marge Cook has become head of the Tallnastics Friday night group, an organization established for those people who are short on one end.

Screech! Dear me, there goes another one of those new drivers, and to think Bill Hughes is in charge of Driver Education.

Speaking of cars, we hear that Skip Lind has not yet given up hope for his, though there are rumors that the tire supply in the dump is reaching a dangerous low!

To the amazement of everyone, Pat Keene is not yet married. It seems that she just can't make up her mind.

A banner posted on the school building tells of the big prom that is coming off. The famous trumpeter, Don Van Scoy and his Jazzy Cats are to play. We step inside the school building to get a little detailed information and come face to face with Margaret Blow. She tells us that Sharon Storm and herself have been teaching school here since their college days.

Once again we're headed down the street. A young fellow on the corner is yelling, "Extra, Extra, read all about it. Warren Paxton has taken the Oscar award for his terrific acting in his latest Hollywood Production."

Flash! There goes a camera. Let's find out what this is all about. Joyce Doucett, the roving photographer is catching the hand shake of Wenona Peret, the famous creator of a new type of art, with Professor Lewis Penney, an art director in a nearby college.

News reaches us that we have an inventor in the class. Who could it be? Why Don Yeier, of course, and what did he invent? The Classical hair clip designed primarily for basketball players with long locks.

We are also informed of the fact that Sally Sandidge has won a Nobel Prize for her work with complex calculus problems. She is a math professor at Vassar.

Two members of our class do not seem to be around. On inquiry we find that Rodney Ackles is a Texan now, owner of a large cattle ranch and that Clarence Rose has developed a new breed of sturdy corn.

Chief Wa-Hoo summons us back from our trip and as we open our eyes, we are aware of the increased brightness of the campfire. Engrossed in our thoughts, we stroll away, one by one, into the night.

Best Wishes From

SPORTS SUMMARY

The past year was quite a spectacular year for the Candor Indians in the field of sports. Our football, basketball (J.V. and Varsity), and baseball teams all wound up their seasons on top of the league.

Our basketball team went into the sectional playoffs without having lost a game in our league, but they were beaten by Marathon in a very tight game.

In track, the Indians did not make out quite as well, but always gave the opposing teams a run for their money.

This year is also promising to be very favorable. The football squad won half of their games and ended their season in second place.

The Varsity basketball team this year is also shining very brightly. This year's team hopes to get even further in the sectional playoffs than they did last year. Our J. V. basketball team is aiming for the top of the pile and we all hope that they achieve their goal.

The prospects for an excellent baseball team are also very good. We lost only three players to the graduating warriors and are inheriting many promising new players.

Our track team, which does not get the support that it deserves, also contains many good runners and other specialists.

Last year's cheerleaders won the distinction of being the best group of cheerleaders in the league and in our opinion, this year's cheerleaders are as good, if not better. They have succeeded in urging the Indians to victory many times.

The Indians are indeed fortunate to have Coach Maurice Hickey. He has established a fabulous record for the Candor warriors over the past few years.
